STUDENT COUNCIL GRANTS FUNDS

by Fred Englert

The Student Council of Saint Michael's College assumed its 1959-60 role as the student governing body in a series of meetings held during the past week.

The permanent committees and their corresponding chairman for the year are: Club Statis - Charles Messenger (61), Finance - John Donohue (60), Inter-class Activity - Pete Griffin (60), Lecture Series - Camilo Brenes (61) and the Welfare Committee.

A special meeting was held Thursday evening, Sept. 24. At this meeting, a sum of $61 was granted jointly to the Junior and Sophomore classes for the purpose of holding a dance on Oct. 3 in Austin Hall.

Thursday's announcements also generated special interest. The finance committee requested all club presidents to submit their semester budgets to John Donahue before October 3. It was also announced by the Club Statis Committee that a special election would be held on October 5 to choose a Vice-President for the Glee Club.

The Student Council meeting held Tuesday night saw the passage of a Sophomore proposal providing for a $15 budget to be used for the annual Field Day events. No other business was discussed.

Final note in this week's meeting was the address given by Father Coombs. Included in his remarks were requests for student cooperation in the dining hall. Quicker service will result he said, "If the students would limit themselves to taking only two glasses of milk at a time."

Father Coombs also announced that Alumni Lounge would be locked every evening at 11 P.M. The measure was attributed to student abuse of the lounge furniture.

Hilltop Welcomes Spirited Freshmen

by Robert E. Pellegrine

On Wednesday, September 16 the Class of '63 got its first real look at Saint Michael's College.

The newly arrived Freshmen and their parents were greeted by the members of the Crown and Sword Society who then instructed them as to how to go about the process of registering with the dean of men.

Cadet Colonel Roland J. Holub is congratulated by the Very Rev. Gerald E. Dupont, S.S.E., President of St. Michael's College, upon receiving the news of his appointment. Colonel Wiley M. Bondurant looks proudly on during the appointment.

After this, came a visit to the ROTC department and then the new arrivals were given their traditional beanies by Sophomore Class President, Dave Drew, who instructed them to wear them at all times.

PRESIDENT'S RECEPTION

Later in the afternoon, parents and sons were given an opportunity to meet some of the dignitaries on campus at the President's reception in the college library. In the evening, at an assembly in Austin Hall, the Frosh were introduced to the Director of Spiritual Affairs, Father Geoffrey Keating, S.S.E., the President of the Crown and Sword, Dave Dowd and Joe Kozlowski, their Honorary President.

Thursday started with the customary Mass in the College Chapel that began each day of Freshman Week, and was followed at 9:00 by a welcome by Father Paul A. Morin, S.S.E. The rest of the day was taken up by tests, softball and AFROTC uniform distribution.

SPEAKERS

After dinner, Dave Barry, President of the Student Council, gave a talk on "The Student's Role in Extra-Curricular Activities". In

NEW DORM IN PROGRESS

The new 215-man dormitory which is now under construction south of Alumni Hall by Sewell and Smith contractors of Framingham, Mass., has been progressing steadily despite delays caused by the steel strike and steel fabrication.

The $459,200 dormitory is scheduled for occupancy by September of 1960 according to Superintendent Reynolds, brickwork will begin in a week or so and the boilers will be in the process of installation by Buckingham-Routh of Connecticut. It is anticipated that the roof will be up by Christmas and that temporary heat will be afforded to the crew throughout the winter. The new building will resemble the design of Alumni Hall with slightly larger rooms.

The St. Michael's Alumni have voted that the proceeds of the Loyalty Fund be turned over to the St. Michael's building program for the next three years. The Alumni have guaranteed $100,000 for the program of which $26,211.00 has been paid in cash.

STUDENT UNION

A loan consisting of 85%

of the cost of the Student Union has been approved by FHHA and officials have assured the College that groundbreaking may begin this fall. The Student Union which is to be built north of Old Hall and east of Austin Hall will consist of a dining hall, meeting rooms, club rooms, TV, music, game rooms, and a bookstore twice the size of the present one.

The dining facilities will accommodate 500 students (at one sitting) and 60 members of the Society of St. Edmund. The snack bar will have place for 130.

The total cost of the new dormitory and the Student Union will be just under 2 million dollars. A brochure will soon be published depicting the St. Michael's College building plans for the next 10 years. It will be available to all those interested in St. Michael's.

HOLUB NAMED CADET COL.

by Joe Gondola

"This year, with the aid of my staff, I hope to make the Corps of Cadets at St. Michael's College one of the best, if not the best, in New England", said Cadet Colonel Roland J. Holub.

These were his words after Lt. Col. Wiley M. Bondurant had announced his appointment as Commander of the Corps of Cadets at St. Michael's College.

Col. Holub received the highest rating at summer camp of any cadet from St. Michael's College this year. The highest possible rating is 5.00 --- his was 4.8. He spent the four week training program at Otis Air Force Base, Mass.

QUALIFICATIONS

Other qualifications that were taken into consideration toward this appointment were Holub's staff or command assignments, such as assistant operation and training officer, flight commander and squadron adjutant, for the past two years.

The position of Executive Officer of the Arnold Air Society was also given to Colonel Holub because of his position as Commander of the Cadet Wing.

Dr. Kellner Joins Faculty

by Pete Clement

The newest addition to the St. Michael's College Chemistry faculty is Dr. Stephan Kellner. He comes to the hilltop fresh from four years of study at one of the nation's best graduate schools.

After earning his Bachelor of Science degree in 1955 from the University of Rochester, he continued on in the same school and after four years of graduate study and research, he won his Ph.D. in Physical Chemistry. The Thesis topic that he defended for his doctorate was "The Thermal Decomposition of n-propylcyclobutane and 1, 1, 2, 2, Deuterocyclobutane".

GRADUATE SCHOOL

During his years of graduate school he exposed himself to more-than-required research and experience by taking on a position of laboratory instructor. When he was not in the physical chemistry lab., he made good use of his time by tutoring Latin and Mathematics.

In recent years, Dr. Kellner has contributed articles to such magazines as "The Journal Of The American Chemistry Society."

Among other academic Honors accorded to him, he is a member of Delta Phi Alpha which is a German Honor society.

Dr. Kellner's position at St. Michael's is as assistant professor of chemistry. He is teaching Physical Chemistry and Advanced Inorganic Chemistry, along with additional duty as the moderator of the Chemistry Club.

Mind Over Matter

What was the result of the recent plan to finance weekends on the St. Michael's campus? The result was that the administration vetoed this proposal on the grounds that many students would be required to pay this tax, while at the same time, some students would not be able to participate in the functions presented by the recent proposal. For those who are not acquainted with this idea we will reprint the previous year's bill.

"We propose that a social function fee of $10.00 be charged to each and every student enrolled in the normal academic year at St. Michael's College."

This money would total approximately $8,000 for 800 students (this figure will vary according to enrollment). The money would be collected by the Treasurer's Office of St. Michael's College at the beginning of the first semester in September.

Each student in the freshman and sophomore classes will be given $5.00 from this fee for the Military Weekend. This excludes Junior and Senior Officers. ($5.00 to be applied to ticket purchase).

The money would be apportioned in this manner:

- (1) Military Weekend -- $22.50 (This money to be given for ticket only).
- (2) Winter Knights -- $2000 (Weekend Expenses)
- (3) Junior Weekend -- $3000 (Weekend Expenses)
- (4) Senior Weekend -- $ 650 (Weekend Expenses)

As the enrollment increased the money apportioned to the weekends will increase. However, the money allotted to the weekends may increase depending upon class initiative, such as Junior Weekend and Senior Commencement Weekend.

It is the Committee's wish that the same classes and clubs run these weekends each year. In order that the chairman of the weekends can plan ahead and make arrangements for the approximate number of students that will attend the weekend, it is suggested that the student put in his request for a ticket 3 weeks in advance of the weekend and pick up the ticket one week before.

The other money that the Student Council receives from the administration, approximately $4300, will be used for clubs and functions. The Council shall have complete control of the allotment of this money. Any money allotment for weekends out of this $4300 has to be paid back to the Council.

Money for the weekends will not be allotted until the Weekend's budget has been approved by the Student Council.

Three steps are necessary for the fulfillment of this proposal:

- (1) Student Council approval
- (2) Approval by a majority of the students at the general elections in May.
- (3) Approval by the college authorities.

This proposal was received from the student body. We believe that this issue should not be lost in the shuffle. Should anyone in the student body have a feasible solution to the problem concerning this plan, as stated in the column, we would appreciate a response to the editor.

We shall now attempt to point out the various advantages of this proposed plan. With the financial burdens of the weekends eliminated from the Student Council, it could then devote its energies to the club situation on campus.

The history of the clubs on campus has been a dim one. Clubs that are presently strong have managed to stay together although there has been a marked decrease in the number of participants. If the Student Council were free to place added emphasis on the clubs, it would be possible that they could remedy the situation. The Weekends themselves would be under better management if the Co-chairmen, Student Council and the Administration were aware of the exact amount of money placed at their disposal.

Question: What did you think of Freshman Week?

Before coming to St. Michael's, my parents and I dropped off a brother at one of the other colleges in New York. There I saw how the freshman were treated and after that I was a little leary of coming because I thought I might be the same.

This was a big mistake. When I arrived on campus we were treated like honored guests. The activities, in which we took part, were planned with perfection. I think, I can speak for all freshman in saying that freshman week was a week to remember. I wish to take this chance to give our thanks for all those who took part in our orientation program.

James C. Walton, Class of '63 - Wellesley, Mass.

Freshman Week was a new and different experience. It gave me an interesting preview of what lay ahead for the next four years. It acquainted me with the environment of the college. It also gave me an opportunity to get acquainted with my fellow classmates. Each event of Freshman Week contributed equally to a week that I am sure will be a highlight of my college life.

Edward Meyers, Class of '63 - Ramsey, New Jersey

I was very impressed with freshman week at St. Mike's. It was a unique welcome to what I hope is to be a fruitful four years of college. During the week we were briefed on college and what would be expected of us. We participated in softball and football games during our free time. The Saturday night dance and the cruise on Lake Champlain brought an end to a perfect week. Freshman week was a memorable week and will be remembered for many years to come.

Jim Moynihan, Class of '63 - East Hartford, Connecticut

Freshman week was my introduction to St. Michael's College. This week kicked off what I hope will be four interesting years of college. The week was ideally constructed to introduce the students to all of the facilities of the college.

I believe that Freshman Week was excellent in that it gave the freshman a chance to meet the school and their fellow students. Freshman week will always be remembered by me as a very worthwhile and enjoyable time.

WITH MALICE TOWARDS NONE

We would like to take this opportunity to welcome the Freshman class of '63. We know you are going to enjoy your four year visit at St. Michael's, although at times you may become despondent. But with a little perseverance you'll find yourselves accepting a diploma in June of 1963. All the facilities for acquiring first-rate education are at your disposal, but it is up to you to take advantage of them.

As we gaze around the campus this year we're very happy to see a few changes. It almost appears that we have gentlemen attending this institution. If this continues we think it will do much to enhance the school. If we would take the time to question those who have graduated from this college we would be shocked to learn that this RIDICULOUS matter of dress is of great importance in the business world.

Experience shows that those who come to interview our Seniors are not only interested in scholastic records, but one's appearance as well. Sooner or later we will have to present ourselves to an interviewer and we feel certain that khaki pants and dirty white bucks will not be in our favor. It is one thing to appear in dress clothes, but to give the impression that we are at ease is quite another. Since our entrance in the business world will require that we conform to certain standards of dress this is not a subject to be treated with levity.

The Freshman seem to realize the importance of this, however, some of our more integrated students have let it slip from their minds. We are sure that if our upperclassmen set the example the entire campus will benefit. The Administration appears to be convinced that this is for our own good and we owe it to ourselves to take their good advice.

PARENTS TAKE NOTICE

The MICHAELMAN, the campus newspaper takes this opportunity to welcome you to another year of service as the medium for sports, local, and national news from St. Michael's College.

Throughout the years the MICHAELMAN has been geared not only to bring the students and subscribers current campus news but also a well balanced variety of columns, features, and editorials. This makes for an interesting, as well as informative paper.

This paper is run solely by students and has as its purpose the job of keeping the students and subscribers well abreast of all newsworthy activities on the "hill-top".

To parents it is like another letter home. The average student does not always mention all of the campus news in his hurried letter and we the members of the MICHAELMAN Staff feel that our newspaper will supplement that short letter and keep you well informed on all activities at St. Michael's.

With all of the staff members as students you will get a direct and true picture of St. Michael's College in action. We sincerely feel that this student publication will bring much enjoyment and enlightenment to its readers.

A subscription to the MICHAELMAN, a non-profit organization, is only $3.50 for this academic year. The paper is a weekly, with the exception of holidays or vacations. We are looking forward to serving you this year.

Yours for best news,
Richard L. Hickey

FROSH HOPE TO LOSE SKULLCAPS?

by John W. Sinnott

Dave Drew, president of the Sophomore class, has announced that the Frosh-Soph field day will take place Saturday, October 3, at 2:15 P.M. on the athletic field.

There will be many games between the two classes, including a tug of war, capture the flag and an old SMC tradition the "Pile Dig".

PURPOSE

The purpose of this Beanie Field Day is to afford the Freshmen an opportunity rid themselves of their beanies which they have "voluntarily" chosen to wear these past few weeks.

The Sophomore Class understands deeply the anguish the Frosh would undergo if through some small chance of fate they were to win and would have to loose their symbols of distinction, and they will do their best to spare the Frosh this hardship. In commenting on the rules of the various contests the Sophomore President noted that "To insure fair play throughout the day and to encourage good sportsmanship the contests will be judged by members of the Sophomore Class."

DANCE

Following the Field Day there will be a dance in Austin Hall sponsored by the classes of '61 and '62. Peter "Pitch" Cavanaugh and his combo will be on hand to provide the music. Dancing time will be from 8-12, and tickets will be $1.00 stag sale previous to the dance throughout the campus and at the door.

All students are invited to attend this dance which the combined classes promise to be one of the finest events to be held on campus this year.

ST. MIKE'S WELCOMES DONOHUE

by R. Plasse

"A way to a man's heart is through his stomach" and Mr. "Ted" Donohoe newly appointed director of food services at St. Michael's College, has surely lived up to his proverb.

Mr. Donohoe, a native of Saratoga Springs, N.Y., arrived this summer from Norwich University where he was assistant food director for the past four years. Being familiar with a problem at Norwich similar to ours, he was just the man for the job.

HONORARY DEGREE GIVEN TO KELEHER

by David Barry

On Tuesday, September 29, in Springfield, Massachusetts, Mr. Roger F. Keleher was awarded an Honorary Bachelor Degree from St. Michael's College.

The degree was presented by the Very Reverend Gerald E. Dupont, S.S.E., President of St. Michael's. This is an honor rarely bestowed by the College.

The late Frank Stewart, father of John Stewart, English instructor at St. Michael's, also received his degree in the same way for his outstanding record.

The presentation was made in conjunction with the honoring of Mr. Keleher for his 40 years of service in the Probation Department of Hampden County. He was recently made Chief Probation Officer. Included among the many present was Governor Foster Furcolo of Massachusetts.

Mr. Keleher entered St. Michael's in 1914 as a pre-legal student. While there he became actively engaged in sports and started in baseball, football, and is remembered as one of the St. Michael's greats in basketball.

GEORGETOWN

In 1916 he entered Georgetown to study law. The following year he left Georgetown and attempted to join the Army but poor eyesight kept him out of the service though he was engaged as a secretary for ten months at Camp Devens.

Mr. Keleher has twice been the National President of St. Michael's College Alumni Association. He was among the first group to receive the Alumni Award presented annually to the outstanding Alumnus. In his honor an award is presented annually to the outstanding Senior athlete at St. Michael's.

NOTICE

A naval officer candidate team will hold interviews Monday and Tuesday, October 6 and 7, between 9 a.m. and 3 p.m. in the campus Snack Bar. Those interested in Naval Air Officer Candidates School may stop in without appointment.

On Wednesday, October 7 between 9 a.m. and 3 p.m. a Naval officer Candidate will be present in the Snack Bar for those interested in Officer Candidate School. No appointment is necessary.

SMC Curriculum "Sets Pace"

Among the most notable innovations in the curriculum for the 1959-1960 school year are:

- 1 --- a stepping-up of Mathematics 108.
- 2 --- an opportunity for an exceptional French student to attain six college credits.
- 3 --- an entirely new Theology course for Freshmen.

The Mathematics 108 program now offers the student Analytic Geometry; Trigonometry being a prerequisite where formerly Trigonometry was offered to the student.

FRENCH

A three point program has been initiated for the student electing French 102 through a series of tests.

1. A Freshman who achieves a C standing in the preliminary test will be admitted to French 202 without credit.
2. A Freshman who achieves a B standing is considered as having fulfilled the language requirements of the college.
3. A second test will be given to those achieving a B standing and accordingly a B grade on this last test will merit six college credits.

Sixteen students have taken advantage of these tests; four have qualified for the special six-credit exam; four others have qualified for advanced standing in French 202.

The French program consist of five periods, three classes and two labs per week. The laboratory is capable of handling 600 hours outside of the foreign students.

THEOLOGY

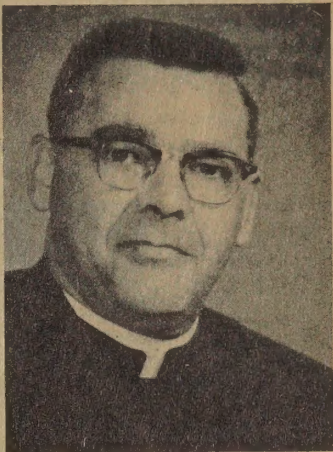

A new course in Theology 102 has been made available to provide the Freshmen with "a more vital fundamental of Christian doctrine." The compiling of the material for this course has been achieved through the efforts of the faculty and through the special efforts of Rev.

Gerard Duford, S.S.E., who is the editor.

The course itself consists of a syllabus of 350 items each of which is systematically numbered and corresponds to the chapter and date on which the material is assigned. The Bible is used supplementarily as a reference and reading text.

Among the three broad divisions into which the course is divided are:

1. The Life of Jesus Christ.
2. The Life of the Kingdom in and among men on earth.
3. The literature of the Kingdom, being a brief introduction to the Bible.

Father Gerald Duford, S.S.E.

AIM

The primary aim of the course is "to treat as one single entity the subject of the Kingdom of God" and the three divisions listed above. Another aim of the course is the "Christianizing of intelligence which must affect not only the other theology courses but the whole curriculum as well".

A hope was expressed by Fr. Duford, S.S.E., that the compiled work now in mimeograph form might be made into a textbook.

"Touché, varlets!" cried Altos, skewering four of the King's Enemies like shish kebab upon his gleaming blade. Turning calmly, he watched Pathos and Bathos wrestle the fiendish English archvillain, Lord Half-Nelson, to the floor, and subdue him.

"Well done, rare comrades!" he shouted. "France is saved! Let us go to my aunt's nearby castle, for rest and Schaefer beer."

"Let us retire to the antechambers!" his valiant friends huzzahed. "Schaefer's got a smooth round taste—never sharp, never flat."

The gay blades were taking their ease in the great banquet hall when Skip the Page entered, carrying gleaming silver tankards and a single bottle of Schaefer.

"Hallo! Just one for all?" expostulated Bathos incredulously.

"No, all for one!" exclaimed the greedy Pathos, snatching up the beer.

"En garde, Pathos!" murmured Altos, buckling his swash and reaching for his foil.

"En garde, Pathos!" echoed the noble Bathos.

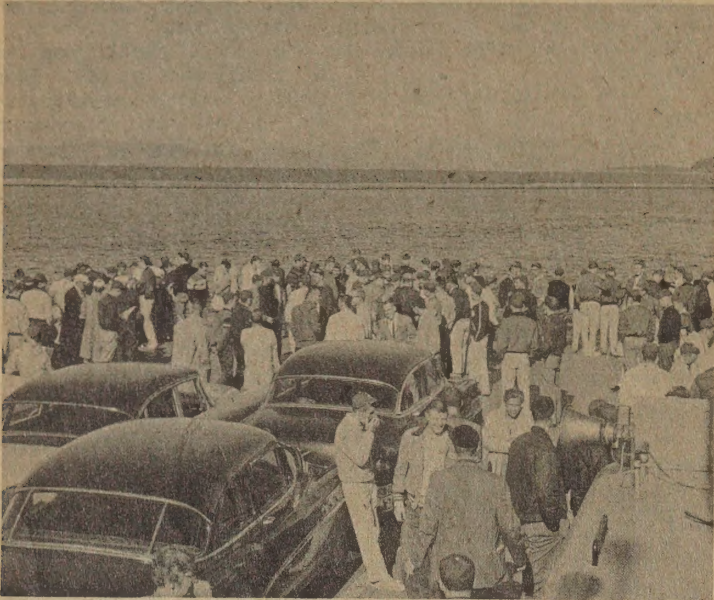

"Save your steel for the Cardinal's Guards, gentlemen," smiled a youth from the doorway, "and answer this riddle: What d'ya hear in the best of circles?"

"Schaefer all around!" chorused the impetuous trio. "What is your name, O insolence?" asked Altos, advancing on him.

"D. R. Tagnan," the youth responded proudly, throwing open his cloak and revealing the six-pak of Schaefer he carried. "Brave lad!" vociferated the adventurous threesome. "Welcome to our company!"

GONE BUT NOT FORGOTTEN !

the absence of George "Doc" Jacobs, Ed Markey did his usual fine job of introducing the Frosh to the athletic opportunities on campus. On Friday, the Dean of Men, Reverend James R. Coombs, S. S. E., addressed the students; his talk concerning "Student Life at Saint Michael's". Lt. Col. Wiley M. Bondurant USAF, Commander of the AFROTC department on campus, then spoke on "The Student in AFROTC".

At night, an activities session in College Hall gave the Frosh a chance to meet and talk to the presidents of the various clubs on campus. This was followed at 8:15 by the annual talent show which was highlighted by a jazz group that ended the night's festivities by playing "The Saints", to which all of the Freshmen joined in the chorus.

Saturday evening at 8:30 Frosh prayers were answered at the dance in Austin Hall, music by Bill Mazur and the boys, when they were finally able to meet the local beauties of the Burlington area.

Early the next morning, the Frosh, Faculty and members of the Crown and Sword Society sailed across Lake Champlain to the New York side and Port Kent. The new Michaelmen paraded to the picnic grounds singing "typical" Michaelman songs. Upon arrival, the Crown and Sword Society got to work setting up volleyball, football and basketball games, which continued until the call to lunch was given.

Afterwards, the Annual Frosh-Faculty game ensued with the faculty winning behind the strong pitching effort of Sergeant Moore, of the ROTC department.

After a good "chow down" at Port Kent, the Frosh found many things to occupy their time. Here they are shown engaged in a close contest of Volley Ball as is shown by their expressions.

Here we catch the Class of '63 during one of their many lecture periods which were designed to orientate them to college life. We can see many expressions of enlightenment.

WSSE - Progress Is Their Best Product

Bill Mazur, WSSE radio club president, expressed satisfaction with the initial phases of organization, engineering, and programming that allowed operation during Freshman Week. Carmine Pizza, head engineer, included the installing of a new transmitter in Old Hall, and rewiring the master control board in the redesigned engineering room.

AUDITIONS

Procurement and cataloging of the 2000 long-playing albums, and 2000 45 rmp records has been accomplished, as also freshman auditions, under the direction of Ron Von Stetina, station manager. Applicants in the fields of newscasting, disc jockey, and sports announcing were screened, and have been broadcasting since last week.

NEW INTEREST

As a result of the early programming, freshman interest in the club has doubled from past years. Tom Miles, program director, has promksed a wide variety of selections to satisfy the variety of tastes in music and program.

CCD REGIONAL CONGRESS FOSTERS NEW IDEAS

By JAMES MCGUIRK

Under the auspices of Cardinal Richard Cushing, the Archbishop and Bishops of the provinces of Boston and Hartford and at the invitation of His Excellency, the Most Reverend Robert F. Joyce, D.D., Bishop of Burlington, the city of Burlington played host September 18, 19 and 20 to the 13th New England Congress of the Confraternity of Christian Doctrine.

Approximately 3000 clergy, nuns and laity listened to and participated daily in the conferences and panel discussions which were called, according to Bishop Brady in a keynote address, "to consult, to plan, and to execute the best adopted means to continue and to extend the kingdom of Christ, the knowledge of Christ, and the love of Christ in the minds and hearts of men".

Our own St. Michael's was well represented in the program for college students with our President, Very Reverend Gerald E. Dupont, S.S.E., presiding at the General Session and presenting the summary. Richard Hickey impressed also with his contribution: "Organization of and Training for CCD Work by the College Campus".

The Congress was of special interest to the college for another reason. This past summer a "leadership workshop" for the Confraternity of Christian Doctrine existed here on campus for six weeks. It saw 50 sisters and brothers from New England and New York attending. This workshop represented the first in the Northeast and to some, reflects a renewed interest in the activity.

The Reverend David J. Power, Chaplain, University of Massachusetts, stated certain campus activities which included religious education of elementary and high school students, instruction of retarded or exceptional children, classes for immigrants where language might be a problem, parent educational program for married students and discussion clubs for adult education.

If information is desired, The Burlington Free Press, Sept. 19 and 21; and The Vermont Catholic Tribune, Sept. 25, 1959 carried extensive accounts of the Congress.

Summer Sees NY Giants Train Here

The 1959 edition of the New York Football Giants arrived at St. Michael's College, July 25, for three weeks of rigorous training and conditioning exercises.

The hilltop was soon hustling with pro-football activity and St. Michael's soon became a luring tourist attraction as well as a haven for autograph and curiosity seekers.

Coach Jim Lee Howell and his entire staff soon greeted approximately 65 rookies and veterans. Returning from the 1958 Eastern Conference Champions were league all-stars Sam Huff, Ray Weitecha, Frank Gifford, the two Rosey's, Grier and Brown, Kyle Rote and the greatest of them all the again, 12 yr. veteran quarterback from Mississippi Charlie Conerly.

Among the rooking were Bob Ripley of Norwich and Pete Alrich of Middlebury, both of whom were later cut in order to reach the 35 man player required by opening game.

Most of the veterans were pudgy and listless after the long off-season but were eager to get back into the fold. As General Manager Ray Walsh put it "They won't look like the Giants right off but wait a few weeks and you'll see something". With that "pesse-mistic optimistic" statement workouts began.

CONDITIONING

The coaching staff spent the first few days working on conditioning exercises and equipment was not issued until later in the week. Veteran tackle "Rosey" Grier weighed in at 293 lbs. but was soon down to his playing weight of 275. Morning and afternoon sessions were held six days a week for the entire six weeks and evenings were spent with backboard drills. Of the 65 players who reported many weakened, some were scared, and some glumly said, "this ins't for me." Of those out, the greater percent headed for the Canadian League.

LONG SCHEDULE

Because of the tiresome schedule most of the players off time was "sack time". But most found time to visit local fairs, movies, museums, and spend much time in the wards of local hospitals. Rosey Grier participated in the Summer Session Talent Show entertaining the Nuns, Priest, and Brothers with his electric guitar. He also hlepeð 'move the piano'. And, as strange as it may seem, a group of the Giants visited Middlebury College to interview Robert Frost, the renowned poet.

The entire Giants squad were dinner guests of the Burlington Chamber of Commerce, at which Jim Lee Howell expressed his thanks to John Buchan, Business Director of St. Michael's College, for the excellent facilities provided at St. Michael's. He also expressed a deep concern to return to the Winooski Campus in 1960.

PRACTICE ENDS

Practice culminated August 15 with an inter-squad scrimmage at the Athletic Field. The contest drew upwards of 5000 people and was a fitting finale for 3 weeks of the finest football found anywhere. With this the Giants left for Dallas, Texas, to meet the World Champion Baltimore Colts.

DO YOU HAVE PROBLEMS?
KEEP THEM, NOBODY ELSE WANTS THEM!

When the Colgate-Palmolive-Peet Company reveals the man behind the sand-paper mask, as being either Kyle Rote or Frank Gifford of the New York Giants, a familiar note will be struck for all those associated with St. Michael's College.

Why? Because the advertising crew of the Colgate-Palmolive-Peet Company moved on to campus during the Giants' stay and with the aid of props turned the gym into a football locker room and video taped the Rote Gifford, Colgate Shaving Cream ad. It took two days to do it but Rome wasn't built in a day, either.

GOOD BREAKFAST

A veteran of three years in the Quartermaster Corps during WW II, Mr. Donohoe believes that a good substantial breakfast is of a necessity and one of the reasons why the breakfasts have been of such a variety lately is to get more students to stroke up early.

A graduate of the Lewis Hotel Training School at Washington, D.C., he was for 10 years with the Hotel Van Curler in Schenectady, N.Y.

NEW EQUIPMENT

The transition of the new equipment, designed for conversion to the new dining hall, took place in the latter part of August. One of the main reasons for the new equipment is to cut down the number of people handling dishes.

Honorary Freshman President, Joe Kozlowski, gave a helping hand to new Frosh.

Kozlowski Honorary Frosh President

Senior, Joseph Kozlowski of Dunkirk, N.Y., is the official representative for the class of 1963 in the capacity of Honorary President. He will hold this position until such time as the Freshmen hold their general elections.

President Kozlowski is an economics major with an overall B average. Besides being head waiter in the Dining Hall since his Sophomore year, he has been active in interclass football, basketball and debating. He is also Vice-President of the Athletic Club. He has been a member of the Sabre Air Command, and chairman on the publicity committee for the 1959 Junior Weekend. He is presently a member of the Crown and Sword Society and is head of the Permanent Committee for all activities in the Society.

DUTIES

The duties Kozlowski will fulfill are: represent the Freshmen in the Student Council; organize the class for the interclass activities; hold class meetings and set up all the necessary details for the class's forthcoming elections.

These elections will be held either in November or January, depending upon the passage of a new Constitution presently before the Student Council.

Officiating at all Council meetings with Mr. Kozlowski are: Tom Derosier, Old Hall 325, Ed Dilworth, Old Hall 126, George Miller, St. John's 104, and Robert Fogarty, Old Hall 405.

PLANS

In a statement, Kozlowski said, "Through the Student Council I will represent the Freshmen class. In this capacity, along with my four appointees, I will endeavor to unite, guide and instill into them the Michaelman spirit. Only with their cooperation and support can this be accomplished."

Juniors Lead In Football

Frosh Trounced

JUNIORS' 14 SENIORS 0

The Interclass Football season started in a hurry this year as the defending champs, the Juniors, helped by Ed Anibal's touchdown run after an interception, whipped the Seniors 14-0.

Both teams fought to a half time deadlock with no score as the defensive lines kept quarterbacks Mahoney and Kerrigan on the run.

SECOND-HALF RALLY

It was not until sometime shortly after the beginning of the second half that Ed Anibal, line backer on the left side for the Juniors, intercepted a flat pass intended for the hands of Patsy DeAngelis and raced downfield for 6 quick points.

SOPHS 27 FROSH 0

It was all Willie Basel in last Friday's football game between the Sophomores and the Freshmen as the inexperience and relative smallness of the first year men paved the way to a Sophomore victory.

Basel mixed up his plays in such a way that there always seemed to be someone open for a pass. Sensing the poor defensive set-up used by the Frosh, the free-throwing Long Islander wheeled and threw his passes without any difficulty.

FROSH FAIL

The Freshmen were never really in the game, but could have been except for a bad case of dropsitis. Little lefty quarterback Bob

SENIORS 6 SOPHS 0

"The best offense is a good defense". This was certainly true in the Seniors' 6-0 win over the Sophomores Monday evening.

Faced with the problem of stopping Willie Basel and his passes, the Seniors employed a hard hitting line which created havoc in the Sophomore backfield.

FROSH PENALTIES

Basel, however, did move his team to within scoring distance three times, each time to be stopped by a penalty or an interception. On one occasion the Sophomores had a fourth and 35

The play covered 35 yds. in all as Anibal avoided tackler after tackler. The Seniors screamed that the tag had been made, but apparently not seen by "Doc" Jacobs.

After going ahead the Juniors had it pretty well in the bag. An insurance touchdown was added when Kerrigan hit Dick Guilmette in the end zone for 6 more points.

Fogarty who was rushed almost everytime, threw some perfect passes, but they were dropped time and again.

This presence of butterfingere receivers had the many beanie spectators bowling in dismay.

At one time Fogarty threw a beautiful pass downfield to his right end. It should have gone for a 15 yard gain. However, the ball hit the end in the head as he never turned around.

situation due to penalties.

STEVENS SCORES

The lone score of the game came in the second half as Joe Mahoney, who had previously run the ball up to around the 25, found Louey Stevens alone in the end zone for a TD. Stevens caught the ball just as he stepped out of bounds.

As a result of this game, both teams have identical 1-1 records.

Phillies High on Tessier

By JOE ROWAN

Although the Philadelphia Phillies finished the '59 ball season in last place it may not always be that way. At least if S.M.C.'s Warren 'Lefty' Tessier has anything to do about it. 'Lefty', a member of the Phillies' farm system, should be in there giving a hand before long.

Last February Tessier took off for Leesburg, Florida, to spring train with the Elmira Pioneers of the N.Y.-Penn. Baseball League. Managed by the former Phillie catcher, Andy Seminick, Tessier turned out an A-1 season in spite of a barrage of injuries.

Although 'Lefty' won his laurels at SMC on the mound, he played centerfield for the Pioneers last season. He said that if he were over six feet the mound would have been open for him.

HEAVY HITTER

The five-nine-175 pounder's big bat never waned. He compiled an impressive record in spite of his limited action. Batting clean-up, he hit the ball at a nice .397 clip. He wasn't a slouch as far as extra base hits go either. Amongst them were 4 homeruns, 7 triples, and ten doubles. Three of those triples were hit in one day tying a league record. Besides driving in 51 runs, he stole 12 bases.

INJURIES

His injuries, which allowed him action in just 45 games (5 pinch-hitting) were many as well as varied. He suffered a dislocated collarbone on a close play at first. While at bat, he was hit by a pitch in the ankle. Besides these, broken ribs, sprained ligaments, and 'charley-horses' also benched him.

Tessier, a math majoring senior, will graduate in January. He is a native of Plattsburgh, N.Y., where he was a standout in baseball and basketball scoring 64 points in one high school hoop game. Here he was also a standout in these sports and played in Evansville in '58 for S.M.C. in the NCAA small college basketball tournament.

Upon graduation next spring he will play with Williamsport, Pa., a class 'A' Phillie farm club. One thing is for sure. If he continues playing at this fabulous clip, barring any more injuries because he's had his share, he will give those Phillies a needed spark. This year he's a student assistant to 'Doc' Jacobs.

PLAY ONLY 6 HOME GAMES

The Purple Knights of St. Michael's College will open the 1959-60 basketball campaign on December 5 with a game at Hanover, N.H., against the Big Green of Dartmouth.

LIGHTER SCHEDULE

In comparison with last year's schedule the Knights should have it a little easier for these reasons: Steubenville, Creighton, So. West., Missouri, Kty., Wesleyan. If you remember correctly these teams thoroughly trounced the "Jacobmen" last season.

Along with the addition of Dartmouth minus Rudy LaRusso and Providence plus John Egan to the 1959-60 schedule, the Northeast NCAA Champs will travel to New Jersey to encounter Fairleigh-Dickinson.

Last season Fairleigh lost out to Adelphi for a bid to the Eastern NCAA regionals and looms to be tough this season.

YOU WANNABET

by Dan Mahoney

T.C.U. vs. Arkansas: Last week the Horned Frogs from Texas lost a tough one to L.S.U. 10-0. The Razorbacks still are undefeated after two games. I will have to stay with the future winner of the South West Conference: T.C.U.

Michigan vs. Michigan State: Both teams lacked offensive strength last year and both teams have started off on the wrong foot this year. The Spartans finished in the cellar last year in the Big Ten but it's someone elses turn this year: Michigan State

Clemson vs. Georgia Tech: The "ramblin reck" is beginning to ramble like they did a few seasons ago but in the Southern Conference there looms a powerful stone wall called the Tigers. Orange Bowl Bound: Clemson

Navy vs. S.M.U.: This will be a hard fought inter-sectional game. The middies have as yet to play a real power but they have rolled up the score. They have shown real scoring ability but as yet against no powers. S.M.U. could make the game interesting but: Navy

Notre Dame vs. Purdue: In the past three seasons, the Boilermakers have proved to be the "Fighting Irish" jinx. This year they could destroy that jinx but not without the aid of George Izo or Red Mack, who are the injured list: Purdue

Duke vs. Rice: Duke really lost a heartbreaker to Ohio State last week 14-13 but they may be seeing many more games like that before this seasons over with because of their schedule. The Owls have it but so do the Blue Devils: Duke

Iowa vs. Northwestern: The Hawkeyes of Iowa are my pick for the best team in college football. Northwestern are definitely the most underrated team and the most improved team in football after trimming Oklahoma 45-13. This could prove to be Saturday's best game: Iowa

Ohio State vs. Southern California: Big Bob White will have to be at his very best in this game. U.S.C. won't do much running through the middle of the Buckeye line because sitting there is Bertho "Big Beartha" Arnold, a 309 pound middle guard: Ohio State

Illinois vs. Army: Illinois has a powerhouse but didn't show it by losing last week to the Hoosiers 20-0. Now for Army. All I have to say is Lonely End, Bob Anderson, Don Usery, and: Army
